INAUGURATION.

Governor Beckham Will Enter Upon New Term.

Imposing Parade, General Reception and Inaugural Ball.

The inauguration of Gov. Beckham for another term will take place at Frankfort to-day with imposing ceremonies.

Company D left yesterday for Frankfort to participate in the ceremonies.

Lieut. Col. Joett Henry, Maj. E. B. Bassett and other field and staff officers accompanied the soldiers.

Twelve hundred soldiers from the three regiments of the Kentucky state guard will participate in the parade, and twenty mounted clubs from Franklin county, including two clubs of young ladies who will ride the best horses to be procured; the secret orders of Frankfort, and many from a distance will take part.

The formal exercises began last night with a reception by the State Librarian.

The inaugural parade will be at 11:30 to-day. There will be soldiers, orders and clubs.

The inaugural ceremonies will be at 1 p. m., at the State House, Gov. Beckham's inaugural address will follow immediately after he is sworn in.

The reception by the Governor and State officials and their wives at the Capitol hotel will be at 9 p. m.

Inaugural ball at 10 p. m. in assembly ball room.

The social feature of the occasion will be the reception at the Capitol hotel in the evening, in which Mrs. Beckham will receive with the Governor. In the receiving line will be the State officials-elect and their wives.

The inaugural ball will be the social event to-night, and hundreds of young people from the various neighboring cities will take part in the dance.

DAMAGE SUIT.

Father Wants $10,000 for Death of a Son.

Thomas Tramel, col., of Lafayette, this county, administrator of Rivers Tramel deceased, has filed suit at Madisonville against the Reinecke Mining Co. for damages in the sum of $10,000. Plaintiff alleges that while his decedent was employed by the defendant as coal loader in the defendant's mines that he boarded an empty car and while riding upon same the mule pulling the car against a post that supported the roof of the mine, dislodging same and causing the roof which it supported to fall on decedent, breaking his neck and causing his death.

The attorneys for defendant are J. C. Duffy and R. N. Lander, of this city, and T. E. Fenley, of Madisonville.

WILL WED IN JANUARY.

Former Christian County People to Marry in Texas.

Mr. Boone McReynolds and Miss Sarah Kendall, both formerly of this county, will be married in Waco, Texas, early in January. Mr. McReynolds is a son of Esq. Dick McReynolds, of Elkton, and Miss Kendall is the youngest daughter of the Rev. J. G. Kendall, who moved to the Lone Star State several years ago.

Sheep Killing Dog.

Mr. M. H. Nelson had a flock of 24 Southdown sheep killed by a dog few days ago. The dog was the property of a farmer in the Beverly neighborhood.

Irvine Crumbaugh, a bartender, shot and killed Dudley Williamson in a saloon at Frankfort. The trouble arose over some pennies with which Williamson was playing a slot machine.

MEETING CLOSES.

Baptist Revival Come to a Close Last Night.

More Than Twenty-Five Additions to the Church the Result.

The protracted meeting at the Baptist church closed last night, having been in progress two weeks. Dr. W. W. Hamilton returned to Louisville this morning. Dr. C. H. Nash went to Louisville Saturday to preach in Dr. Hamilton's pulpit Sunday morning and evening. He returned yesterday.

The services held by Dr. Hamilton Sunday were notable. The first meeting of the day was following the Sunday School at ten o'clock. Then regular services at 11 o'clock, children's meeting at 3 p. m., prayer-meeting at 6:30 and preaching again at 7 p. m. There were many confessions during the day and the number of additions to the church was increased to 23. Others were expected to unite with the church last night.

The meeting has been productive of great good in the church, the membership has been revived and increased and the Sunday School now has about 400 enrolled pupils. The attendance during the last two Sundays has been nearly 300.

Dr. Hamilton returns to his home leaving behind him many strong friendships formed during his stay. He is one of the most promising young divines in his denomination, possessing an attractive personality and pleasing manner in speaking that never fails to make a most favorable impression.

T. H. RICKMAN DEAD.

Expired Rather Suddenly of Heart Trouble Saturday.

Mr. Herbert Rickman died rather suddenly of heart trouble Saturday, at his home on Elm street.

Mr. Rickman had been suffering for several days with muscular rheumatism, but his condition was not considered serious at any time. Saturday afternoon he complained of pains in the region of the heart and death resulted in a few hours.

He was about 50 years old and a brother of Messrs. W. A. and J. M. Rickman, of this city.

He is survived by two children, a son and a daughter. The body was interred in the family burying ground, near Gracey, Sunday.

OPTICS AFFECTED.

Mr. Watkins, of Gracey, Under Treatment in Nashville.

Mr. Lee Watkins, of Gracey, who has had trouble with his eyes for some time, went to Nashville the other week, where his optics are being treated by a specialist. Dr. D. E. Bell, who accompanied him, returned home Saturday, but Mr. Watkins will remain some time.

VERDICT FOR $125.

In Suit Brought Against L. & N. Railroad Company.

W. B. Minor, of Casky, brought suit against the L. & N. railroad company for $175 for a horse and a mule alleged to have been killed by one of the company's trains recently. The case was tried in the county court Friday and the jury returned a verdict for $125.

MURRAY RESIGNS.

Commander of State Troops Leaves The Service.

General David R. Murray Will be Succeeded by Percy Haley of Frankfort.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7.—Adjutant General David R. Murray to-day sent his resignation to Gov. Beckham. The resignation will take effect at once and to-day Gov. Beckham will appoint Percy Haley, of Frankfort, to succeed Gen. Murray. Gen. Murray has made one of the most popular commanders the state troops Kentucky has had in many years. He is loved and honored by all of the state guard officers and private. The new Adj. Gen. has been the assistant to Gen. Murray for three years.

COMMISSIONER'S SALES.

Christian County Real Estate Disposed of Yesterday.

Master Commissioner Rives sold the following Christian county property at the court house door here yesterday:

Tract of 103½ acres of land situated on Pond River, part of the estate of the late D. L. Barnes, to M. V. West and Luther Spurline, $800. Tract of 95 acres on Tradewater, part of estate of E. M. Adams, deceased, to W. R. Renshaw, $700.

150 acres in Pilot Rock country, estate of Calvin Meacham, to D. N. Stinnett, $375.

Tract of 35 acres, east of Crofton, part of Gibson estate, to T. C. Lanier, $102.

254½ acres, known as the J. W. Word place, near Herndon, to J. D. Simpson, $1,700.

Two lots in Crofton, to Jesse Bowling, $260 and $130.

STATIONS NAMED.

Tennessee Central Has Four Depots in Christian.

The new time table of the Tennessee Central Railroad shows that four stations have been established in Christian county. The first south of Hopkinsville is Renshaw, at the Renshaw farm; the next is Piercetown, at J. H. Pierce's, on the Zack Lacy place, eight miles from town; the third is called Chester at the Clarksville crossing; the last is Thompsonville in the Oak Grove vicinity. The first station in Tennessee is called Edgerton. Then come Kenwood, Adairville and Furnace Spur, before Clarksville is reached.

Capt. McDaniel Out.

Capt. R. T. McDaniel, who has been quite sick for several weeks, is able to be up again.

INCENDIARY FIRE.

Stable of Wilbur Caruthers at Lafayette Burned.

Loss of $1,200 on Live Stock and Provender by Flames.

The large new stable of Mr. Wilbur Caruthers, at Lafayette, Ky., was burned yesterday morning at four o'clock and everything indicates that it was the work of a firebug. Mr. Caruthers attended to his own feeding the night before and locked up the building in good condition. The family was aroused the next morning before day by the fire. There was no fire near the building and the flames could not have been started except by some human agency. The contents of the stable, the winter supply of hay and corn, two work mules, a horse, gearing etc., were destroyed. The loss is about $1,200, as the stable was new and a good one. Bloodhounds were sent for to track the incendiary yesterday. The insurance, if any, has not been reported.

ACCIDENT TO MINISTER.

Rev. P. A. Thomas Gets an Arm Broken.

Rev. P. A. Thomas, of Crofton, had the misfortune to break his left arm a few inches above the wrist last Thursday. He was loading a log on his wagon when he slipped and his arm was caught between the timber and one of the wheels.

STORMY MONTH

Will be December According to Prophet Marsh.

Perilous Times in Coming Year—Blizzards and Hurricanes Will Sweep the Country.

According to Weather Prophet Marsh the month of December will be a great storm month. Following is a summary of his predictions: Between 3d and 8th, the East will be storm swept. Violent changes in temperature will occur from cold waves, heavy snowstorms to sudden rise in temperature, with heavy sleet and rain storms, causing much damage.

Between 10th and 13th, rain, sleet and snow, followed by cold wave over Kentucky and a dozen other States.

Between 17th and 22d, severe storms, with high winds, rain, sleet and snow over the Ohio valley country.

Between 25th and 29th, furious snowstorms will prevail over much of the country. The Northern States will be snowbound and great delay to traffic will occur. A great wave of great intensity will follow the storm, covering the entire Southern States. Much suffering will mark the path of blizzards, sweeping the East, West, North and South. The month of December will end with cold, stormy weather generally over the entire country.

The year will be marked by the most violent storms and heaviest snow and rain for any one year on record. Floods of great magnitude will prevail, causing destruction of property and loss of life. The months of January and February will be great storm months, severe cold waves, blizzards and very heavy snowfall prevailing. Blizzards and heavy snowfall prevail from Colorado to the Lakes with attendant blizzards.

The summer will be hot and sultry, the heat at times being intense, but of short duration, being relieved by heavy rains and severe storms. The heavy rainfall during the spring and summer months will cause delay and shortage of crops. Extreme hot waves will occur during June, July and August and the greater part of September, September, but will be of short duration. Terrific cyclones will prevail during these months over the West and Northwest, with hurricanes at the Atlantic Ocean and coasts, Great Lakes and Gulf of Mexico and over the Gulf and Southern States.

If you would purchase jewelry that is sure to give satisfaction and at reasonable price, we'd like you to look over our showing of Rings, Pins, Studs, Brooches, Watches, Holland Fold Writing Pens, etc., at M. D. Kelly's, the Old Reliable.

FORTUNE FOR MRS. WIGGS.

Claims to Have Fallen Heir to Several Million Dollars' Worth Property.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—The relatives of Mrs. Mary Bass, the original "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," claim that she is heiress to property in Kentucky and Chicago to the value of several millions of dollars. It is claimed that the property was left by will to "Mrs. Wiggs," grandfather. At the time Mrs. Alice Hegon Rice finished her last book, "Lovey Mary," her publishers wanted her to add another, making Mrs. Wiggs suddenly wealthy, sending her to New York and giving her all the money she could use. But Mrs. Rice declined that such life would never do for Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch. At that time the publishers were not aware of how near they came to the truth when they made the suggestions.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Cook & Higgins, druggists.

COMPLETES ANNUAL.

Railroad Commission Finds $52,253,266 Worth of Tangible Property.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 30.—The state railroad commission today completed its annual report and mailed it to Gov. Beckham. The report shows $52,253,266 worth of tangible railroad property in the state. This is an increase of $308,882 over last year. There has been an increase of 39 miles of new railroad built during the year. The total amount of track is 3,159 miles of rails.

An Indiana Farmer.

Evan Swift a prominent farmer near Franklin, Indiana, wrote to Dr. Caldwell Feb. 5th, 1903, as follows: "In the spring of '97 I was taken down sick, seeming to be out of shape all over. I got able to be up part of the time, but was weak and seemed to grow no strength at all. Took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and got better at once. Never had a medicine that seemed to act so nicely on the bowels. I do not hesitate to recommend it to any one wishing a medicine of that kind." For sale by Cook & Higgins.

Kendrick-Runyon Tobacco Warehouse Co.,

Clarksville, - Tennessee.

We beg to inform planters and the trade generally that the QUEEN CITY TOBACCO WAREHOUSE has been put in order, and with excellent facilities, again opens its doors for the sale of

LOOSE TOBACCO ON THE FLOOR.

Light Weights or in Hogheads, or as our friends may prefer to sell. We invite the patronage of the thousands of our friends, who so liberally patronized us in the past season, and earnestly solicit a trial shipment from those who have not so favored us.

We Have Good Quarters for Teams and Drivers in the Warehouse.

That the marketing of Tobacco on the open markets, by concentrating the demands, will bring better results to sellers, is self-evident truth. Public meetings, stenographers, typewriters and their offspring "Resolutions," cannot better conditions. But united determination on the part of planters to offer their Tobacco on open markets to the highest bidders will bring face to face every known demand for Tobacco. Help us to sell your tobacco for good prices by patronizing open market. It stands planters in hand to think of this.

IN A HURRY TO EAT.

People Who Patronize Restaurants

Want Immediate Service.

"It is very queer what ideas some people have regarding eating houses," said a man who has long been identified with the restaurant business in Utica recently, according to the Utica Journal. "Ninety out of every one hundred people who enter a restaurant are in a hurry and expect to be waited on immediately. That is all right, of course, and ordinarily they receive prompt attention; but if there happens to be a rush and there are a dozen or so orders ahead, then look out for breakers, if the last comer is quick-tempered or nervous. It is surprising how many folks there are who in other matters exercise a good deal of common sense, but who, if compelled to wait a few minutes before their orders are served, lose their tempers and their heads at the same time. To many such customers it does not seem to matter in the least what the occasion of the delay may be; the fact that there is a delay is enough for them, and oftentimes too much. Excuses don't go, and the only relief they can find for their surcharged feelings is in condemning the house or the waiters, or both. It must necessarily happen occasionally in every restaurant which has any considerable patronage that 20 or 30 people, and perhaps more, will come in about the same time. Then, of course, it is a case of hustle all around, and not only at the tables, but in the kitchen, and oftentimes the waiters are blamed when there is not the slightest reason for it, as the delay is in the culinary department. But this is a point which a great many transient patrons of a restaurant cannot understand, and, feeling it incumbent on them to give some body a call down, after they have seated themselves and played with their knife and fork for a few minutes, they unlimber their batteries on the innocent waiter, who, as a matter of fact, is just as anxious to serve them and have it over with as they are to be served. No matter how promptly their order may have been taken, the waiter gets the blame if these impatient individuals do not leave their food placed before them just when they think it ought to be. It is pretty good guessing, too, that these fault-finders are the last ones in the world to think of speaking words of encouragement or giving a tip to the waiter who exerts himself to the utmost to please them."

OLD QUESTION ANSWERED.

Police Officer Tells What Becomes of Property Found on Criminals.

"Many people are inquisitive to know what becomes of the property found upon criminals arrested and searched by the police," said an old captain of the New York police force, according to the New York Times. "The question as to what disposition is made, for instance, of money and jewelry found in the possession of criminals was frequently asked me when I was on the force two years ago. As a rule, everything found upon an arrested criminal which, obviously is not his lawful property is held in trust, as it were, by the police for possible claimants. If no claimants turn up the property is returned to the criminal on being released from his term of imprisonment, providing the commissioner of police is perfectly satisfied that the property actually does belong to him. "If the commissioner has reason to think otherwise, however, the articles, often valuable, are held indefinitely, or until it is certain that they will never be claimed by their rightful owners, when the stuff is finally disposed of and the proceeds handed over to benefit one or another of the various police funds. Some of the money is also quite frequently given to certain charitable organizations. There are certain things, however, which the police never return to those on whom they have been found, such as gambling tools, firearms, gambling devices, begging letters—anything, in fact, that might be used by criminals again in their nefarious occupations."

Title to land worth $1,000,000,000 in the upper part of Manhattan is claimed by 17,000 heirs of the members of the old corporation of New Harlem. A suit will be begun to secure possession.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Setz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Cook & Higgins, druggists. Every box warranted.

About Cattle.

Prof. Charles S. Plumb of the Ohio College of Agriculture describes the experiments of Charles Goodnight of Texas in cross-breeding buffalo with breeds of domestic cattle.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Cook & Higgins, druggists.

As Regards the Strike.

Gen. Taft will recommend that no federal troops be sent to Colorado in connection with the mine strike, as it is his belief that the local authorities will be able to cope with the situation.

THE SPIDER.

How Many Yards One Can Spin Is a Interesting Question.

"How many yards of thread can a spider spin?" asked a young man who takes much interest in insect life, according to the New Orleans Times-Democrat. "There is an interesting question for you when you have nothing else to think about. You would be surprised to know, I dare say, I do not know whether any of the insect experts have ever made experiments with a view of determining how many yards of thread a spider can spin, but if they have not they have in my judgment overlooked an interesting point in the spider's life. I caught one of the smaller kind in my room the other day, and for fully three-quarters of an hour I tried to exhaust the supply of web the little fellow had about him, but to no avail. I made all kinds of efforts to force the spider to spin himself out of thread. The chief method was to get the insect to crawl upon any object, like my finger, for instance, and then shake him off, forcing him to swing by his web. By jerking the thread which I took on my hand I was able to force the spider to spin and he would pick him up again and go through the same process over and over again. I suppose it would have been long enough to reach several city blocks. Of course the threads were of a very fine and fragile sort. I observed another interesting thing while making this little experiment, and that was that the spider was capable of making a few observations as he went along. He burned a thing or two. For instance, at first I used my hat in order to get the spider from the floor by placing it directly in front of him and thus forcing him to crawl upon it. This worked all right for awhile, but soon the little fellow began to get up to the situation and he quit taking to the hat. Try as I would, I could not get him to crawl upon the hat. Whenever I would place the hat in his path he would fly into a perfect rage, fold up his legs, pull himself into a ball, and roll around the floor and show other unmistakable signs of madness. He was so angry he would fly to the ceiling and stay about the place until I tried to get him from the floor. Really, Well, I should say it was a case in a higher order of life, and I do not see why you should not call it the same thing in spider life."

There are many enthusiastic citizens in Hopkinsville prepared to tell their experience for the public's good. Testimony from such a source is the best of evidence, and will prove a "helping hand" to scores of readers. Read the following statement:

Mrs. O. P. Lewis, wife of O. P. Lewis, blacksmith and general repairer, living at 508 North Virginia St., says: "Acting upon the advice of a friend I purchased a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Thomas & Trahern's drug store and tried them for kidney complaint, from which I had been constantly suffering for a long time past. My back had been in such a condition that it was the greatest distress for me to stoop or lift anything, but I had taken only a few doses of the pills when I felt greatly benefited. The kidneys were strengthened and the aching in my back relieved. My daughter, Miss Wm. J. Tobie, who also complained a great deal of her back, used Doan's Kidney Pills and was similarly benefited. I am glad to recommend this remedy to others."

This is the season of the year when the prudent and sensible business man's opinion is of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is certain to be needed before the winter is over, and results are much more prompt and satisfactory when it is kept at hand and given as soon as the cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system. In almost every instance a severe cold may be ward off by taking this remedy freely as soon as the first indication of the cold appears. There is no danger in giving it to children for it contains no harmful substance. It is pleasant to take—both adults and children like it. Buy it and you will get the best. It always cures. ELKS MEMORIAL.

Open Session Held at Opera House.

Annual Address By Hon. Ruby Laffoon, of Madisonville.

Memorial services were held by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Sunday afternoon at Hilland's Opera House, to which the public was invited. The attendance was large, the auditorium being entirely filled.

The following program was carried out: Piano voluntary, Miss Florence Elgin. Ceremonies by Lodge. Quartette, Lux Benigosa. Messrs. Guy Starling, Gilton Long, Charles Duke, Nick Ray. Violin Solo, Meditation, Gounod. Miss Florence Elgin. Ceremonies by Lodge.

Opening Ode—"Great Ruler of the Universe All seeing and benign. Look down upon and bless our work. And be all glory thine. O' hear our prayers for the honored dead. While bearing in our minds The memories graven on each heart."

For "Auld Lang Syne." Invocation, Rev. Dr. E. L. Southgate. Solo, Hear us, O Father Willard. Solo, Sadie Frankel. Quartette—When the Mists Have Rolled Away. Messrs. Starling, Long, Duke, Ray. Solo, Ruby Laffoon. Madisonville Lodge No. 738 B. P. O. S.

Solo, Over the Stars, Franz Abt. Miss Mooney. Closing Ceremonies... The Lodge Doxology. Benediction, Rev. Dr. E. L. Southgate. Mr. Laffoon's address was in the best vein of the able and eloquent young lawyer from our sister city of Madisonville. It was listened to with close attention and all who heard it were more than pleased with the address.

Miss Mooney, of Bethel Female College, whose reputation is already established as a singer of unusual talent, sang to a thoroughly appreciative audience. The same may be said of Miss Sadie Frankel, whose sweet voice never fails to please her hearers. All of the songs and other numbers were most pleasingly rendered. The Elks Lodge will as usual distribute many Christmas presents to the poor of the city this year. The matter has been placed in the hands of a committee.

SOCIETY GIRL'S PLIGHT.

Catches Her Feet in Her Hair While Doing Some Stunts.

Decatur, Ala., Dec. 2.—Miss Lula Scarff, a well known society belle of this place, who is a member of a female athletic club just organized, came near breaking both her legs, while demonstrating to her girl friends that she could play the female contortionist.

The accident occurred in a private residence, and no one was present but members of the club. Miss Scarff succeeded in entwining both her limbs around her neck, but when she attempted to remove them they became entangled with her flowing golden locks and she could not move them, even with the assistance of her friends. At last in her pain and agony she cried: "Get a doctor quick, but get an old one." A doctor soon came and relieved her of her distress. Her limbs were badly strained and swollen.

The club had been kept a secret up to this time. When the girls' mothers learned of the existence of the club many curtail lectures followed. The club has now gone out of business.

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their "teens" are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion. It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any lady. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., New York.

For Sergt. Ansen Huggins of Company D.

Deprived of Non-Commissioned Office and Fined Twenty-Five Dollars.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7.—Gov. Beckham has announced his approval of the finding of the State guard courtmartial which tried Anson Huggins, of the Hopkinsville company, for running away from the combined military maneuvers held several weeks ago at West Point, Ky.

The finding of the court, which now becomes public, is that Huggins, who held the non-commissioned office of sergeant, be reduced to the ranks and that he pay a fine of $25.00.

WARD & WADE'S MINSTRELS.

The Company This Season Numbers Forty Men.

Ward & Wade's magnificent Minstrels, which will hold the boards at Hilland's Opera House, Friday night, Dec. 11, is this season the largest Minstrel Organization on the road. The company is a very popular one and is composed of artists of reputation and talent. Mr. Ward, by keeping faith with the public, has made for himself a reputation second to none in the amusement world. The sterling worth of the Ward & Wade Attractions is proven by the constant prosperity enjoyed by the company and the expression of pleasure on the part of those who witness its performances. The Minstrel Company this season numbers forty men, and never in the history of minstrelsy has there been such a star artist or organization under one management. The long list of artists who go to make up this combination contains the names of many who have attained international reputation. Among the names are those of Harry Ward, the great President of Minstrelsy; D. George Wade, Premier Comedian; Warren & McLain, musical artists; the Harmonic Four; Loyd Balliett and Fred Varen, premier vocalists; Monroe, expert club and Roman ax jugglers; Ivers & Powell, champion dancers. The original Hottentots, Mercer & Wyllson comedy acrobats.

A noontide parade will be given on the day of performance in which the entire company will appear. It is said to be the best parade ever attempted by a Minstrel Company. Two bands and 40 men will be seen in it.

As this is one of the largest and best Minstrels that will visit us this season, it would be a wise move to secure seats in plenty of time as the advance sale for attractions of this kind are generally very large.

Cards of Thanks.

I am deeply appreciative of the help of all my friends who shared with me my great sorrow. I wish to express my grateful thanks for the many expressions of sympathy and love, for the beautiful flowers, for the time and care of those who visited and ministered to both my husband and my little son during their illness, and to all those who took part in the last sad rites. Mrs. Mayme Bonis Duncan.

I desire to thank all the friends who gave their sympathy, service and love during the trying time of the illness and death of my beloved son, J. Guy Duncan. The multitude of these kindnesses render it almost impossible to thank in person each one of the many who thus proved their friendship. To each and every one who by word or deed lightened the burden of my sorrow I extend my most heartfelt thanks. Mrs. Geo. H. Johnson, Henderson, Ky.

BROKE THE RECORD.

Local Pedestrians Go to Clarksville in About Six Hours.

Messrs. Saxe McCormick and E. T. Ryan walked to Clarksville Sunday, in an effort to lower the record made in September by Messrs. Kohlchuetter and Tollner of Clarksville. The record made by the latter was seven hours and fifty-eight minutes for the round trip from Clarksville to Hopkinsville at 5 o'clock a. m., and reached Clarksville at 11:25 a. m., lowering the record one hour and thirty-three minutes. They did not make the round trip on foot, but returned home on the train Sunday night.

The distance from Hopkinsville to Clarksville is 27 miles, with pike the entire distance, but the country after the Tennessee line is crossed is very hilly.

The record breakers were in fine shape for the journey and went through without stopping even for a drink of water.

PRESTO CHANGE!

Out Goes the Old, In Comes the New.

Only One Change in Personnel of City Fathers--Vacancy in the Seventh Ward.

The old council held its last meeting Friday night. Mayor Henry officially notified the body of the death of Councilman J. G. Duncan, of the Seventh Ward. He did so in a very feeling and sympathetic manner. On motion the Mayor was authorized to appoint a committee to draft suitable resolutions.

The session was devoted to routine matters, as the old board desired to wind up the business of the year. Nothing out of the ordinary was done.

Yesterday, being the first Monday in December, the members of the new council elected for two years qualified, and entered upon their duties. The only new Councilman climber is Joe K. Twyman, who succeeds James West in the Third Ward. Mr. West not being a candidate for re-election.

COUNCILMAN TWYMAN.

The personnel of the new body is as follows:

First Ward--Capt. L. W. Whitlow.
Second Ward--J. B. Galbreath.
Third Ward--J. K. Twyman.
Fourth Ward--L. H. Davis.
Fifth Ward--E. W. Glass.
Sixth Ward--Dr. J. B. Jackson.

The vacancy in the Seventh ward will be filled by election when the new council meets and organizes. It is not likely that the council will elect until the January meeting. It is quite likely that the telephone franchise matter will again come to the front when the election is held. Councilman Duncan was an earnest supporter of the popular side of the franchise matter and on close votes held the balance of power. There are six members of the council, who are understood to be evenly divided, in which event Mayor Henry, who is friendly to the Home-telephone, would have the deciding vote. But it is more than likely that Councilman Duncan's successor will be agreed upon in the Democratic caucus which will meet to name the other officers. As there will be but five in the caucus, no deadlocks are anticipated.

Councilman Twyman, whose picture appears above, is the only new member in the present council. He is the well-known Main street grocer, who has seen service in the city government as street inspector, police lieutenant, etc. He is very popular in his ward and won his nomination by a very flattering majority and was elected in the general election with many votes to spare. Councilman Twyman, as will be seen by a glance at his amiable brow, is a very clear headed business man, a native born Hopkinsvillian who knows the city's needs, its resources and its people. He will make one of the most useful public servants the city has ever had.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in, declaring Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds to be unequaled. A recent expression from T. J. McFarland, Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had Bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all lung and throat troubles, consumption, pneumonia and grip. Guaranteed by R. C. Hardwick, druggist. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

FEDERAL PRISONERS.

Men Charged With Robbing Post Office Held Over.

Chas. Newman and Tom Jackson were held over to the Federal grand jury by Commissioner Ferguson, of this city, charged with robbing the post office at Weldon, Ky. They were taken to Louisville and lodged in jail. The men were first arrested on a charge of breaking open the store of R. H. Farmer & Co., at Nortonville in November, an account of which appeared in the KENTUCKIAN the day after the robbery.

They had in their possession a bunch of keys, one of which was a postoffice key belonging to the Weldon office. The men, who were in jail at Madisonville, were then surrendered to the Government authorities.

STOCK SALE

Of Messrs. Layne & Moseley a Success.

Messrs. Layne & Moseley held their fourth sale of live stock Saturday at their new barn on Ninth street. They disposed of about 75 head of horses and mules at very satisfactory prices.

There were several buyers from a distance and a good many of the animals were bought for shipment. The farmers were well represented and supplied their wants for work stock.

Among the buyers from a distance were Holland & Webb, Nashville, Tenn.; Smith & Smith, Bowling Green, Ky.; Wm. Crunk, Smith's Grove, Ky.; Terry & Moore, Atlanta, Ga.; A. C. Porter, Springfield, Tenn.; Russell & Stone, Franklin, Ky.; Chas. Curtis, Earlington, Ky., and Judge S. A. Bass, Russellville, Ky.

"Let us Pray."

A preacher at the conclusion of one of his sermons said: "Let all in the house who are paying their debts stand up." Instantly every man woman and child, with one exception, rose to their feet. The preacher seated them and said: "Now every man not paying his debts stand up." The exception noted, a care worn, hungry looking individual clothed in his last summer's suit, slowly assumed a perpendicular position. "How is it, my friend," asked the minister, "that you are the only man not to meet his obligations?" "I run a newspaper," he meekly answered, "and the brethren here who have just stood up are my subscribers, and--" "Let us pray," exclaimed the minister.--Ex.

INTERESTING MEETING

Of Homeopathic Doctors Held at Princeton.

The third annual meeting of the West Kentucky Homeopathic and Eclectic Medical Society was held in Princeton last Thursday. Prominent physicians of the two schools were in attendance from Hopkinsville, Graceland, Paducah and Henderson.

Papers were read on "Obstetrics" by Drs. Wadlington, of Cobb, and Backus, of Graceland. Surgical papers were read by Drs. Armstrong, of Henderson, and Coon, of Louisville.

Clinical medicine was represented by papers of Drs. Amos, of Cobb; Yates, of Hopkinsville; Wood, of Hopkinsville; Charles G. Wilson, of Clarksville, Tenn., and S. H. Pulliam, of Paducah.

In materia medica, Drs. Felix, of Graceland; Young, of Cobb; Neil, of Henderson, read interesting papers on various drugs, as did Dr. Robert A. Hicks on "Scrum Therapy."

3,554 ARE KILLED.

Report of Railroad Fatalities in 1903, 45,977 Injured.

Accident bulletin No. 8, of the Interstate Commercial Commission shows that for the year ending June 30, 1903, the railroads of the United States killed 3,554 persons and injured 45,977. Casualties numbering 49,531 cost the railroad $7,645,406, as compared with $7,645,406 for the previous year. In the last year the number of deaths exceeded those of the year before by 735 and the injuries by 6,179.

Often a person puts off taking needed tonic because of the disagreeable taste of most tonic preparations.

Therefore, the ideal tonic should be pleasant to the palate. Walthers' Peptonized Port may justly claim the title of the ideal tonic, for in addition to being a highly agreeable to the taste, it is a strengthener of greatest value, combining power, itself a noted efficacy, with pepton which is nature's own digestive agent.

This preparation restores lost vitality and cures nervous prostration, indigestion and all kindred ailments. For sale by Anderson & Fowler, & Jas. O. Cook, Druggists, Hopkinsville, Ky.

SNOW BLOCKADES

And Destructive Burdens of Sleet With Cold Wave

Will Wind Up The Year. Says Weather Prophet Irl R. Hicks.

Following is a summary of the weather we may expect from December 10 to January 1, according to Rev. Irl R. Hicks:

On and touching the 10th and 11th there will come a very noticeable reaction to warmer.

The regular storm period, central on the 17th and extending from the 15th to the 20th, will bring a decided fall of the barometer. The temperature will rise, winds will shift to southerly and easterly, and more storms of rain and snow will develop in western parts on and touching the 17th. During the 18th to 20th these storms will pass over the country to the Atlantic. Rain to the southward, turning to sleet and snow northward, may be expected, all followed from the north-west by high barometer, wintry gales and a cold wave. A reactionary storm period is central on the 22nd and 23rd. The prolonged tendency to storminess and precipitation, through all this part of the month, will break into well-defined storms of rain, wind and snow on and about those dates. Following this reactionary period the mercury will fall very low and the cold penultimate quite far into the south. The whole of the last storm period in the month, which covers the last six or eight days, will feel the combined disturbing power of Vulcan, Mercury, Venus and Winter Solstice. In every probability there will be general and severe winter storms from the 26th to the end of the month. They will not appear all over the country at the same time. They will organize and start on their eastward sweep in the west and northwest, not far from the 26th. Blockades of snow and destructive burdens of sleet, all winding up with a full grown cold wave, are the things to be feared and provided against the last week of the year.

In this strenuous age, one sometimes feels the need, not exactly of a medicine, but of a good common sense revitalizer and tonic. Walthers' Peptonized Port is just such a tonic. The port wine is a strengthener in itself, and the pepton, by aiding digestion, enables one to get the maximum amount of strength from one's food. It strengthens in a natural way--not by whipping the organs into a forced activity, not by creating a false feeling of strength through nerve stimulation, but by actually giving real strength. REWARD OF $400

For Arrest and Conviction of Murderer of Unknown Man.

The Governor has offered a reward of $250 for the arrest and conviction of the murderer of the unknown man found near Pembroke about three weeks ago. Judge W. T. Fowler has also offered a reward of $50 for the county and Pembroke offers an additional $100, making a total reward of $400.

Mad Dog Killed.

Coroner J. L. Allensworth on Friday morning killed a dog suspected of having hydrophobia. It belonged to Rev. Joe Metcalfe and was on the premises of the latter, on Crescent street, when killed. It was in the street, frothing at the mouth, but ran in the yard, where it was shot. It had done no damage, so far as known.

Dwelling Destroyed.

The residence of Henry Norman, col., on Crescent street, burned Friday morning. The loss amounts to several hundred dollars: covered by insurance.

Over-Work Weakens Your Kidneys.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

All the blood in your body passes through your kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys are your blood purifiers. They filter out the waste or impurities in the blood. If they are sick or out of order, they fail to do their work. Pains, aches and rheumatism come from excess of uric acid in the blood, due to neglected kidney trouble.

Kidney trouble causes quick or uneasy heart beats, and makes one feel as though they had heart trouble, because the heart is over-working in pumping thick, kidney-poisoned blood through veins and arteries. It is used to be considered that only urinary troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all constitutional diseases have their beginning in kidney trouble.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Kidney, the great kidney remedy is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail. Some of Swamp-Kidney, also pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name Swamp-Kidney. Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Kidney, sold everywhere. Binghamton, N. Y., at every drug store.

New Kind of Gold Brick.

James Thompson, a well-to-do farmer living in New Jersey, near the Delaware Water Gap, was working on a fence along the road when a well-dressed stranger came along searching for some lost article in the road. Inquiry revealed that the stranger had dropped a $500 diamond ring a few hours before. He said he would give $100 for it. After an hour's fruitless labor the stranger gave it up and went away, giving the farmer his address in Scranton. A little later a tramp appeared on the scene, and as he passed along the road he stopped and picked something from the dust the farmer hastened out and found it to be the lost diamond. He negotiated for the possession of the stone and finally secured it for $50. Then he rushed off to Scranton, but failed to locate the well-dressed stranger. Later he learned from a jeweler that rings such as he had were worth 25 cents each, if well cleaned.

BREAKING OF DOGS

The Skill Cannot Be Acquired from the Reading of Books.

A Treatise of Dogs Pointing for Some of the Most Celebrated Trainers Prevalent in Pittsburg a Dog
for the Hunt.

It is often said that half the books that are written telling how to break a dog to hunting are untrue, and that the other half are written to prove them so. If there be a measure of accuracy in the statement, it must be concluded that the way to learn to break a dog is upon the field under the tutelage of a competent dog trainer. It is not necessary to teach a pointer or setter to point in a room because the young dog does these things, if well bred, at least, point naturally, and the last thing any dog owner to be taught is to point to order. If his breaker knows the better way to teach a dog should point.

A BEGINNER.

the obvious thing to do is to take him in the field and shoot with him. This is not only true of private breaking, but it is true of the most successful owners. Indeed, one of the most successful owners said this season how it happened that a certain field-trial breaker's dogs always have good deal of false point, or over-shoot, about them. Of course, I did not know, but it often happens that a man who habitually has false pointers is one who only half trusts his dogs' noses, and tries to supplement their faulty powers
by his own supposed sense of knowledge, by the manner of the dog, more of the locality of game than the dog knows himself.

Nearly all the writers upon shooting make this mistake. The instant a dog begins to draw, up, and down, and
"Have a care" or a "To-ho" is uttered.
This is all wrong; no dog that is broken upon a proper system is the better for
"Have a care" or a "To-ho." The best thing to do is to let the dog be alone with the birds; either he is trying to catch the birds himself, and deserves more drastic treatment, or else he is trying to make sure whether they are there before he points them. Caution him, and he will false point, and learn two bad things—
first, to rely upon his breaker to tell him when to point, and, secondly, to point before he is sure of game, that is, to false point.

When he has been "To-ho" into these bad habits take him home and shoot him (or he is quite useless. This may seem a little harsh, but it is the only way.

LESSONS IN DROPPING

I do not suppose a protest in a newspaper will serve to put an end to the erroneous foolish education of the trainers of our shooting companions; but the trainers who are most successful in public do not go about with windmill-like arms, cracking dog whips, or shouting
"To-ho." They simply trust their dogs to show them game, and for the most part the dogs respond, and are found worthy of the trust reposed in them. For my part, I would never flatter or fuss a puppy while on the point, until the game was up, or I had seen it on the ground.
Remember that until one of these things has happened the point may be at all, or nothing, or a field-mouse, or nothing whatever, and flattery, on the supposition that he is pointing game, will make him commit the same error at the next opportunity.

The greatest trouble in all breaking is to undo the errors previously taught, possibly by indifference, probably by a wrong system, and this double point will generally last through life if the breaker begins by encouraging it. Although as I have said, the best breakers make these bad blunders, and the majority of breakers follow them, the field trial men know their dogs are trained to do more than the artists of a hunt died years ago knew, for these men did not make the blunders of the moderns.

The simple way of breaking a dog is to take to them as if they were children, and to prevent them from doing wrong
as often as is possible. It is wonderful how what a very few minutes of the best will accomplish, but if, on the contrary, dogs are started wrongly, and have to unlearn, they will not be ready to start the right way until their first lessons are quite unlearned, a process that may take ten times as long as the whole business of teaching would have taken if a proper start had been given.

ARTHUR OLIVER.

SPORTS AND ATHLETICS

Now that the smoke of baseball has cleared away, and the players have returned to their winter quarters, says a prominent Chicago sporting editor in reviewing the work of the past season,
the fans are beginning to make comparisons and talk
heavily of the season's work, and of the records made by the various ball-players.

Sim Laver

The great pitchers get as much attention as anything else in the baseball line, and the discussion of slabs' merits is always a hot one. The season just ended was a pitchers' year, and consequently there is great food for verbal battle.
Every fan in the land has some pitcher to mind who is the best of them all, and can adduce the finest kind of arguments in support of his position. Many can see only Cy Young. Others idolize Christy Mathewson, and others still worship Philippi. You can't convince any of them that his man could possibly be outclassed, try as you will.

As a plain, hard fact, there were several great pitchers this season, men who stack up so evenly that nobody could differentiate between them. Circumstances surrounding the number. No Pitcher team, all those things must be counted in, and when all these points are considered the fair-minded man should admit that even though his favorite pitcher might be, there are others who on the same teams, would have averaged just about the same in games won and runs allowed.

In considering National league pitchers
the Pittsburgh champion hardly figure. Pittsburgh won by team work and by having run by the work of its players.
This is proved by the fact that the Pirates had a lot of pitchers, and used them all, not relying on any one, two, three or four of the number. No Pitcher pitcher was worked as often as Mathew-son, McGinnity or Taylor. The great Pittsburgh team could stand up with Yell, Wilhelm or Kennedy on the firing line and get away with games just as if Leaver or Philippi were doing the day's work. Leaver and Philippi are grand pitchmen and rank with best-pitchers as good as the best—but it is not fair to call them the very best, for the team that backed them was the real thing.

New York depended mainly on Mathewson and McGinnity, and this pair must be considered
among the top operators in effectiveness, endurance, percentage of victories,
and every thing that makes up the winning twirler. Chicago developed a hit
when to best hands
in either league—
Rube Waddell, Jake
Weimer.

Weimer was there with everything all season long, and seems to have a shiftable but perceptible, on the other great left-handers of the "war"—Hahn, Philippi, White and Waddell. Weimer, of Chicago, was a great game winner, but his luck was always with him.

In all-around service and genuine skill the five best pitchers in the National League seem to be Leaver, Mathewson, McGinnity, Philippi and Weimer. If any team could launch these five, what opportunity could stand against them?
Rube Waddell was the most dazzling pitcher in the American league but not the most effective. Tom Hughes and Cy Young seemed to have the best of it the team behind them, as in the case of Pittsburgh. Both are A1 men, but neither would have fared so well in any other club. Boston played more faith on its pitchers than did Pittsburgh, but the Somerset never let confidence in the buxen slacker up their team work and general housekeeping.

Bernhard of Cleveland, did grand work, but was out of it half the season.
Plank and White, both left-handers, pitched with great ability. The work of Sechoff was one of the most remarkable features of the American league campaign. Moore did superb work, but was out of it part of the summer. It seemed impossible to even select the best five among the American league pitchers, owing mainly to the fact that several of the best, after making great records, were retired for various causes, so that there was no chance for them to have slumps of their per centages. Possibly Hughes, Young, Sechoff, Weimer, and White would be as good a quintette as anybody could select, and such a bunch of five would be tough game for any team to go against.

Three world automobile records have been broken by Barney Oldfield at Denver. The five-mile record of 4:04 was lowered to 4:43, the ten-mile record reduced from 9:43 to 8:34, the 15-mile from 14:35 to 14:24. Oldfield held the old records.

At the Parc des Princes track at Paris Tommy Hall, the English cyclist, has broken the cycling record for one hour by covering 24 miles and 252 yards. The previous record, 52 miles and 918 yards, was made October 18 by M. Dangla.

The wrestling match for the championship of the world which took place at Pittsburgh between Tom Jenkins, of Cleveland, O. and Dan McLeod, of Canada, was won by Jenkins, he taking first and third falls.

Tyson Hamilton, formerly of Matti-tuck, L. I. one of the best-known athletes and baseball players of old-time days, is dead. He was a member of old Atlantic baseball team.

Thomas T. Reilly, a Junior at New York university, broke the college and world record by running the mile in 40 seconds 2/5.

STARVATION.

We shudder at the word starvation.
It calls up in our minds a picture of some gaunt, famished man, who, in a land of plenty, perishes for lack of a crumb. Such cases are rare. The common case of starvation is that of man or woman who eats but is not nourished; whose flesh wastes in spite of plenty of wholesome food. Loss of flesh is one of the sure indications of serious disease. It means a gradual starvation, not from lack of food, but because the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition being diseased cannot digest and assimilate the food received.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.
It enables the perfect digestion and assimilation of food, so that lost flesh is restored and lost strength is regained.

"I was weak, nervous and dizzy, with a fainting sensation when walking," writes Mr. Jesse Childress, of Samuel, Sullivan Co., Tenn.
"I could not walk any distance, always felt bad
after eating; always uneasiness in stomach.
Was taken down in January, 1908. Doctored with two or three physicians, but they did not relieve me any. I grew worse and used everything I could think of; was nearly ready to give up and then some one told me that Dr.
Pierce's medicine was good, so I began taking his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I have taken seven bottles of that now and am as stout as ever, and enjoying health as much as ever before. My case was nervous dyspepsia and liver disease of which your medicine has cured me. In September, 1909, my weight was about ninety-five pounds, now it is one hundred and ninety-five."

Dr. Pierce's Pellets should be used with "Golden Medical Discovery" whenever the need of a laxative is indicated.

THE first issue of the ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH—25 years ago, Dec. 13, 1878, was four pages, 12 columns. It contained no illustrations and sold for 5 CENTS.

ON SUNDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1903, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch will celebrate its twenty-fifth birthday by the issue of a paper exceeding 124 pages and nearly 1000 COLUMNS. Every page will be profusely illustrated. There will be 15 pages printed in COLORS, including a two-page airship view of the World's Fair. Each copy will weigh over 2 pounds and will cost the publishers 12 cents, but the price to readers will be, as usual, 5 CENTS.

THERE will be signed articles, written especially for this number by Mark Twain, Mrs. Jefferson Davis, Mrs. John A. Logan, Hoke Smith, Gen. Frederick D. Grant, Admiral Dewey, an original poem on the silver jubilee of the Post Dispatch by Ella Wheeler Wilcox, and hundreds of interesting features by great writers, famous statesmen and clergymen of renown. IT WILL BE THE GREATEST ACHIEVEMENT IN JOURNALISM EVER ATTEMPTED SOUTH OR WEST OF NEW YORK. The edition is limited, the demand will far exceed the supply. Order NOW from your newsdealer.

JAPANESE GRASS CLOTH.

Unnumbered Artistic Ways in Which It May Be Used.

Japanese grass cloth is one of those convenient commodities which is useful for many things and fills up all sorts of domestic needs, says the Washington Star.

In its wall paper uses it frequently goes into what may be called the informal rooms in the house. In the billiard room, the smoking room or the man's den, where bright colors are in demand, it is a treasure. It comes in the most brilliant as well as the more subdued colors, and in the former is used as a frieze with deep colored papers. The Japanese papers, new this year, which look like enlarged fans with their strokes and chrysanthemums and little Japs, have one of their brilliant colors, red or yellow or blue, reproduced as a frieze in the grass cloth in any one of the rooms mentioned.

It is for smaller things that woman likes this grass cloth best. It is delightful used as a covering for screens, or it may form a mat for a picture of some kind in the top of a screen, the lower part being covered with some textile. It is also used to form a mat or setting for some light, comic picture, and even with some pretty ones which are hung by loops from the back without frames. The number of shades in which the grass cloth comes make it possible to obtain pretty results with the pictures.

The poster picture—not a poster in itself, but mounted poster-like, with rolls at the end and unframed—is one of the recent fads, and the grass cloth mounted pictures are along the same line of decoration. They are pretty in bedrooms and in any of the informally furnished rooms in the house.

Another way in which the American woman utilizes this material is in mounting it on cardboard and painting it for menu cards. She also makes lamp shades of it, and altogether finds it one of the most satisfactory of the newer materials.

BEAUTY AND LEARNING.

Attractive Women Combine Something of Each in Their Education.

Some one has said that a woman's first duty is to be good looking, and thereby has unconsciously stumbled upon a profound truth. To this met the girl students of an American university have just awakened, and the resolution passed by these wise young women, that beauty is better than wisdom for their sex, may shake the educational system of the New World to its foundations, says the London World, and—who knows?—even cause something of a mild revolution at Newham and Giltun. The sweet girl graduate inclining her mind to the burnishing of her locks and the treatment of her complexion will truly be pleasant to the boy-crazed maiden with rickety hair and a muddy skin, to whom they did have been more of a power hitherto than Worth, and straight-fronted corsets of less account than the sides of a triangle. But if a healthy mind is the accompaniment of a healthy body as surely a cultured mind may likewise be the sauce piquante of a physically attractive person. In those good old days, to which there is never a precise date, when they were fairly successful in combining learning with beauty. Queen Elizabeth, whatever we may think of her period, and at all events spared no pains with her coiffure and her make-up generally, while she likewise contrived to be an excellent classical scholar and was "something skilful" with her pen. Poor little Lady Jane Grey, too, was another example of the kind.

How He Became an Astronomer.

Sir Robert Stawell Ball, the eminent astronomer, had little thought of the science which has brought him fame until he was appointed tutor to the sons of Lord Rosse, the owner of the famous telescope known by his name. It was then that the young tutor began to spend the silent hours of the night in the observatory and to find a growing fascination in studying the stellar nebulae. From these days, thanks largely to Lord Rosse's interest in the young Trinity man, the career of the future Lowndean professor was assured.

FIRST TASTE OF ICE CREAM.

Season of the Frozen Mystery Created Much Fun.

The first ice cream sold as a regular article of commerce was shipped by a Boston merchant named Tudor in 1605. He sent a load to Martha's Vineyard.

Mrs. Alexander Hamilton had the first freezing in the city of Washington. She used to tell with amusement of the delight with which President Andrew Jackson first tasted it.

Guests at the white house reception were treated to the frozen mystery, and guest was the fun of the initiated when they saw the reluctance of others to taste the cold stuff. Those from the rural districts especially first eyed it suspiciously, then melted each spoonful with the breath before swallowing it. The next time they had a chance they ate it with delight.

The late Senator John M. Palmer used to like to tell about the first time ice cream was served in Springfield, the capital of Illinois. At an evening party it was passed around in small saucers. In the process of freezing the hostess had gotten a little salt into the cream, and as no one had tasted it before it was thought to be the proper flavor. An old statesman, when asked how he liked the new dish, said: "I'd like it better if it were either sweet or salty, but I don't think the mixture is very appetizing." Imagine the feelings of the poor hostess when she discovered that her much-vaunted new dessert had been full of salt, and no one knew enough to tell her of the accident.

A WARNING—AND ITS SEQUEL.

Story of a Promotion with an Unusual Ending.

My brother went into the death trap at the Colono river with the Irish brigade under Fitzroy Hart. He was a captain in the Royal Dublin Fusiliers—he is so no longer.

One bright moonlight night in December, 1890, my wife, her mother and myself were sitting in the drawing room talking of the South African war, when suddenly and unexpectedly a gunshot in the immediate vicinity was heard, and simultaneously something fell in the room.

Before we were aware of what had actually fallen my mother-in-law, who is highland, indistinctly exclaimed: "Charles's photo!" On rising to look, sure enough I found that my brother's photo had fallen out of its frame, and was lying face downward on the floor. On the next day we heard of the appalling disaster at Colono.

These absolutely true facts should surely convert the most skeptical of premonitory warnings, yet the explanation might possibly shake their new found faith.

My next-door neighbor was having a pot shot at a rabbit in his garden, the photo frame was old and of the cheap foreign "dumpy" order, and my rheumatic but unsundered brother is now in the army pay department, London Spectator.

DIPLOMACY.

How the Thin Man Told the Plump Lady on a Street Car.

The plump lady scrambled into the front seat of a Roland park car, says the Baltimore American.

The seat facing forward was filled, containing six women and one man.

So the woman had to sit on the other seat, facing the entire carload of passengers.

As the conductor's bell rang its starting "ding-ding," and the motorman turned on the current, the plump woman said severely to the solitary man occupying a place on the other side:

"I think you might have been at least enough of a gentleman to offer to change places with me."

"I had carefully considered that matter, madam, before you spoke," rejoined the man promptly, "and had decided that for the good of all, we had better remain as we are. It would be an insult to the passengers back of us for me to sit facing them, and showing my homely features after they had caught even a glimpse of your pronounced comeliness. They would resent the substitution and possibly do violence to both of us, do you understand?"

"Perfeetly, my dear sir," replied she with a smile, "and I wish to implore your pardon for having so underrated your gallantry."

RUINED BY WAR FAR AWAY.

Cashmere Shawl Industry Fell with Napoleon III of France.

Cashmere shawls are still made, but their glory has departed, and the cheap and seductive aniline dye has displaced the soft and beautiful colorings in the old-time vegetable dyes, says Stray Stories.

The men who understand their manipulation have gone to more lucrative fields, or else they lie in humble graveyards hard by the straggling village streets of Cashmere.

The Cashmere shawl industry received its death blow during the Franco-Prussian war, at the breaking up of the French court. When the court of Napoleon III. crumbled in the dust the vogue of the cashmere shawl fell with it, and famine and distress invaded the far-away valleys of Cashmere. Shadipore, which was one of the centers of the cashmere shawl industry, is beautifully located in a valley at the junction of the Sind and Jhelum rivers. But the village has shrunk to a mere hamlet of rickety houses, and the luxuriant vegetation used to cover its barons and poverty.

What is left of the shawl industry is carried on by boys and men who earn from four to eight cents a day.

LITTLE THINGS COUNT

Prominence of a Kick, a Kiss and a Smudge of Paint in a Famous Play.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" and His Famous Company Booked for January 18th at the Opera House.

Theatre goers, and all lovers of high-class amusement, will be glad to learn that Manager Holland has succeeded in securing an attraction that is strictly first class.
"Quincy Adams Sawyer," which will be presented at the opera house on the night of January 18th, is an attraction of the highest class of its kind, and will doubtless be the most thoroughly enjoyable opera ever witnessed by the people here.

In Chicago, on November 18th, during the height of the big car strike, "Quincy Adams Sawyer," at the Auditorium, played to a $1,700
house, and on Thanksgiving night the receipts amounted to $4,000. Of the attraction a Chicago paper says:
"If any one should say that the greatest hits in some plays, not named, were 'a kick, a kiss and a smudge of paint,' the average man would be very likely to turn up his nose with a sniff of derision. But here, as in many other instances,
'the average man' would be wrong, for in plays, as in life, it is little things that count. Especially in this case in 'Quincy Adams Sawyer,' where incident
rather than plot is the chief factor for success. The 'kick, the kiss and the smudge of paint' are the most conspicuous, perhaps of the many incidents. And they are incidents, for they come so naturally that it seems almost impossible that they could be omitted. The kiss is an incident of pathos. A handsome city chap has been kissing the girls at a husking bee. 'There, I've kissed them all,' he says. 'All except Alice,' says one. As Alice is blind and the city chap loves her,
the little 'incident' invariably brings a hush over the playhouse.
Immediately after comes 'the kick' and the great laugh which follows the realization that the cow has spurned the milking stool relieves the strain. The 'smudge of paint' is the climax of the act.
Those who have seen this, need no reminder of it. Those who have not had better see for themselves when 'Quincy Adams Sawyer' is presented."
